RGS SURREY HILLS

RGS SURREY HILLS SCHOOL

Welcome to RGS Surrey Hills – a school shaped by heritage, inspired by values, and focused on the future.

Formerly known as Box Hill School, RGS Surrey Hills is a thriving co-educational day and boarding school for 450 students aged 11–18. Our transformation marks more than a change in name: it represents the next chapter in a proud history of holistic education, as we join the Reigate Grammar School (RGS) Group of Schools – a global family of leading independent schools committed to excellence, opportunity and community.

Founded in 1959 by educational pioneer Roy McComish, our school was built on the ideals of academic curiosity, character development and global citizenship. As a founding member of the internationally respected Round Square organisation, we remain deeply committed to these values today, nurturing not only the minds of our students, but also their confidence, compassion and sense of purpose. Rooted in Kurt Hahn's IDEALS (Internationalism, Democracy, Environmentalism, Adventure, Leadership and Service), our school embraces learning both inside and beyond the classroom.

RGS Surrey Hills offers a vibrant and inclusive community where every child is known and valued. Students join us from across Surrey, Sussex and the surrounding areas, as well as from over 30 countries around the world. Our modern, flexible boarding provision welcomes full, weekly and flexi boarders into beautifully appointed houses, enabling families to choose what works best for them. Whether day or boarding, every student becomes part of a warm, diverse environment that celebrates individuality and encourages belonging.

Academic ambition runs hand-in-hand with pastoral strength. We offer both A Levels and the International Baccalaureate Diploma Programme in the Sixth Form, enabling each young person to follow a pathway that suits their strengths and aspirations. From dynamic science labs and drama productions to student-led sustainability projects, outward-bound challenges, and Round Square exchanges, every learner is encouraged to explore their interests, discover their voice and contribute meaningfully to the world around them.

We are also proud to be a member of HMC, the professional body of the UK's leading independent schools – a reflection of the quality, ethos and aspiration that define RGS Surrey Hills.

As part of the wider Reigate Grammar School Group, we benefit from collaboration, shared expertise and enhanced opportunities – while maintaining our distinctive character as a small school with big horizons.

THE COMPUTER SCIENCE DEPARTMENT

In Years 7 and 8, students follow the OCR Entry Level Computer Science course which provides opportunities for students to become familiar with how computer technology works and get a look at what goes on 'behind the scenes'. The course aims to help students develop their problem solving and computational thinking skills. The inclusion of a programming project to develop a game makes this an excellent preparation for students who wish to progress further with their studies.

Computer Science GCSE is an optional subject which students begin to study in year 9. The course offered is the Edexcel GCSE which provides a very practical approach to developing computational thinking skills with one half of the assessment being carried out via an on-screen assessment in which students design, write and test Python programs to solve a range of problems.

Students can continue to study Computer Science at A Level via the Cambridge International qualification. Students have the choice of completing the practical elements of the course using either Java, Python or Visual Basic programming languages.

RGS Surrey Hills has recently become one of the Reigate Grammar School (RGS) Group of Schools. RGS has been named Times School of the Year and is listed among the top five schools nationally for results. As RGS's sister school, this post offers an exciting opportunity for an ambitious computer scientist to join a thriving academic community. The role would suit an Early Career Teacher or a colleague with previous experience. Staff accommodation is available.
